ВВЕДЕНИЕ

Настоящее учебное пособие содержит раздел грамматики, представляющий определенную трудность в усвоении: неличные формы глагола – инфинитив и иррундий.

Свою основную задачу авторы видят в том, чтобы представить всем, изучающим английский язык, материал для развития умений владения речью на базе тщательно отобранных и систематизированных сведений по грамматике английского языка.

Тема «Неличные формы глагола» рассматривается в двух аспектах: теоретическом и практическом. Изложение грамматического материала даётся в рамках существующих традиционных грамматик. Практический аспект – упражнения. После каждого раздела грамматики даются тренировочные упражнения, направленные на выработку навыков, а также задания, направленные на развитие коммуникативных умений и умений спонтанного оформления высказываний.

Все упражнения подобраны из новейших учебников и учебных пособий. Основным критерием отбора упражнений является коммуникативный принцип обучения грамматики.

Учебное пособие предназначено для студентов II – III курсов факультетов иностранных языков, а также для лиц, углубленно занимающихся английским языком, поскольку содержит грамматический материал, представляющий определенные трудности в усвоении.

LIST OF LITERATURE USED

THE INFINITIVE

The forms of the Infinitive:

Indefinite Active
To swim in the sea is pleasant.

Indefinite Passive
She hated to be laughed at.

Continuous
He is glad to be training young sportsmen.

Perfect Active
I’m happy to have learnt the truth.

Perfect passive
He’s happy to have been promoted.

Perfect Continuous
They are said to have been working at the project for three months.

2. We use Indefinite Infinitive Active and Passive and Continuous Infinitive to express an action simultaneous with the action expressed by the predicate.

The article was to be translated yesterday.

We use Perfect Infinitive Active and Passive and Perfect Continuous Infinitive to express an action prior to the action expressed by the predicate:

He claimed to have been badly treated.

It seems to have been snowing ever since we came here.

3. We use Infinitive without the particle to in the following cases:
   a) after auxiliary verbs:
      It didn’t snow at all last winter
      It will be frosty tomorrow.
   b) after modal verbs except the modal verbs ought; to have to; be to
      He can do this job well.
      May I carry the bag for you?
   c) after verbs denoting perception such as feel, hear, notice, observe, see, watch etc. (in the active voice):
      Did you notice the boys go out?
      I saw him get on a bus tonight.
   d) after the verb let:
      Let me know what’s happening.
   e) after the verb make in the active voice and have
      What makes you think so?
      I won’t have you do this.

Exercise 30. Compose stories to which the given proverbs and sayings will make a heading:

1. To be born under a silver star.
2. Be slow in choosing a friend, but slower in changing him.
3. The best colt needs breeding. (И лучшего жеребенка нужно воспитывать/ Каков в воспитании, таков и в состоянии).
4. An early riser is sure to be in luck.
5. Foods grow without watering. (Дураков не сеют и не жнут, они сами родятся).

In the launderette a girl I knew stopped for a moment .... (to chat) She said something about the washing at home ... her so tired, and two and ninepence... an awful lot of money, (to make, to be) I listened and agreed but I also realized that she was apologizing to me for ... there at all, as the launderette was not to her a place of duty, but a place of lazy, extravagant luxury which she could not afford .... (to be, to visit) She was embarrassed as though I had caught her ... her hair done at an expensive hairdresser’s, or ... cream cakes in a tea shop. (to have, to eat) and I decided ... in the park. (to look, to search) Some boys there told me that they had seen a small girl in a blue dress ... a cricket match, and someone else said that she had been seen ... off with a man who was pushing a bicycle. (to watch, to walk) The chances were against this child ... my sister, but I walked off in the direction in which they had been seen... (to be, to walk) This brought me to a back alley. I called Anne’s name, and was surprised ... her voice ... back. (to hear, to call) I found a hole in the hedge, and as I scrambled through she came ... towards me. (to run) I was in time ... a youth ... over the fence. (to see, to climb) He grinned and waved at me and said, ‘Can’t stop’ and dropped on the other side.

Anne and I walked home; she was not in the least excited about her exploit. She had walked into the park with two girl friends, ... for butterflies, had watched a cricket match, and had then got into conversation with «a nice man», who told her he knew where she could catch butterflies. (to look) He took her into the alley, ... her stories as they walked along, (to tell)

I warned her about ... to strange men but she insisted on this man ... «quite nice», (to talk, to be) I agreed that this was probably so, but made her ... that, in future, she would never again accept an invitation ... for butterflies, (to promise, to look)

3. When the maid had gone, and I was almost alone, I sat down on the kitchen chair and started .... (to cry) I sat there ... and ... and ... how ... myself. (to shake, to gasp, to wonder, to stop) My little daughter Flora came ... what I was doing. (to see) I attempted ... myself together. (to pull) I got up and thought of ... myself a cup of coffee, (to make) I put the milk in the pan. Then I went to the fridge ... the milk-bottle back, and I did not look where I was going, for I fell over one of Flora’s bricks, (to put) I dropped the bottle and it broke and splintered all over the floor. At the sight of it I started ... again. (to cry) Flora came ... towards me and threw her arms about my knees. (to stumble)

‘It’s all right, Flora’, I kept ... as I unclasped her hands, and started ... up the lumps of glass, (to repeat, to pick) I persuaded her ... down while I tried ... the milk with the floor cloth, (to sit, to wipe) I was damp with milk and tears. Flora clung to me, ... . (to sob) When I cleaned the floor, I picked her up and went to the bathroom ... myself. (to wash) I tried... of some way of... the afternoon and decided ... to the launderette with all the things that I never bother... in the machine at home, like bedspreads and dressing-gowns, (to think, to spend, to go, to wash) Flora insisted on my ... her along with me. (to take)

Ron Blakelock has been dismissed from his job for hitting one of the managers, Mr. Cowley. The other workers are on strike because they believe Mr. Cowley started the trouble. Complete the following discussion by using the verb in brackets as an infinitive with or without to. The first one has been done for you.

Tom: Now, I’ve spoken to the Managing Director and he seems (1) to be ready (2) to listen to our side of the story. In fact, he’s offered (3) to talk to us, but only if we agree (4) to go back to work immediately. I said I’d let him (5) know put decision after this meeting. Well, have you got anything (6) to say?

Bert: Yes, I have. I’m not returning to work until he promises (7) to give Ron his job back. And no one can (8) make me! After all, that’s why we’re on strike, isn’t?

Tom: No one’s going to make you (9) do anything, Bert. But you must (10) remember that it’s a difficult situation. Everyone saw Ron (11) hit Mr. Cowley. There’s no doubt about that. The question is why he hit him. We hope (12) to show that it was Mr. Cowley’s own fault. But we can’t (13) do that if the management refuses (14) to discuss it with us, can we?

Dave: Tom’s right, Bert. Frankly, I think we should (15) do what managing Director says. It’s not very sensible (16) to stay on strike under the circumstances. It won’t help Ron (17) to get his job back, will it?

Bert: I still don’t like it. We all know what Mr. Cowley said to Ron.

Tom: Yes, but no one heard him (18) say, it did they? It’s Ron’s word against Mr Cowley’s. Look, let’s (19) have a vote. Anyone who wishes (20) to continue the strike, put up your hand. Well, it looks as if the majority wants (21) to return to work under the circumstances. It won’t help Ron (17) to get his job back, will it?

Bert: I needn’t (23) worry. I intend (24) to accept the majority decision.

Tom: Good. Now, I’ve got a lot of things (25) to do first, but I’ll arrange for us (26) to meet the Managing Director as soon as possible. In the mean time, I’ll tell him he can (27) expect (28) to see us back at work tomorrow.

Exercise 28. Exercise 28. Ron Blakelock has been dismissed from his job for hitting one of the managers, Mr. Cowley. The other workers are on strike because they believe Mr. Cowley started the trouble. Complete the following discussion by using the verb in brackets as an infinitive with or without to.
